THANKSGIVING.

The Way Jim Wiggins Will Entertain Visitors in Empire.

On the 29th and 30th of the present month Jim Wiggins will turn loose the biggest lot of sport ever seen in Empire.

TURKEY SHOOTING.

The distance will be 200 yards, with rifles, at 25 cents per shot, nobody barred. The above pictures represent the style of turkeys.

CHICKEN SHOOTING.

These pictures are not hens, exactly, but will suffice to show the breed he will put up. The distance will be 45 yards, two shots for 25 cents, nothing larger than No. 6 shot allowed.

THROWING AT DUCKS.

Ducks will also be put up for expert throwers to throw sticks at; ten cents per shot will be charged.

You will also get a chance at chickens with their heads out of a box, 30 yards distant, with pea rifles (22 caliber), 2 shots for a quarter.

An invitation is extended to the crack pigeon shots to try their luck at trap shooting. Matches and rules can be made on the grounds. Nobody barred in any of the above events.

MASQUERADE.

On Thanksgiving night there will be a masquerade at Wiggins' Hall, and costumes can be had at the hall. He has arranged to have a lot of new and attractive costumes on hand. Tickets one dollar, admitting gentleman and ladies.

Mrs. Kohl will have a big spread ready for hungry people, and there will also be plenty of stable room for those who come by private conveyance.

Jim Wiggins will spare no pains or expense to make this the grandest Thanksgiving Empire ever saw.

Fortune watch and jewelry repairing to Golden's. First-class work, low prices and prompt attention always guaranteed.

ALL SORTS.

Gov. Colcord has returned from the Bay.

Dan Couillard will make many improvements in the Arcade.

A negro murderer was electrocuted at Auburn, N. Y., recently.

Dr. Thomas, Supt. of the State Insane Asylum, was in Carson yesterday.

Attention is called to a "Notice to Creditors" in another part of the paper.

A fancy bicycle rider entertained quite a crowd on Carson street yesterday.

In Ohio the People's party made splendid gains. It more than doubled last year's vote.

It is said that Senator Forbes and Miss Carrie Eadenwerper are shortly to be married.

Persons desiring live or dressed turkeys for Thanksgiving will leave their orders at Tennant's before Nov. 25th.

Guy Spenser carried a bar of bullion yesterday from the Mint to the Bank on one shoulder, and wasn't feeling his best either.

All old Nevadans will want a copy of Charley Goodwin's latest book, "The Wedge of Gold," on sale at Cagwin and Noteware's.

Yesterday's Examiner contains a long interview with Gov. Colcord, in which he says that Nevada will do herself proud at the Midwinter Fair.

Don't forget the farce at the Opera House tonight. An APPEAL reporter witnessed the rehearsal yesterday, and has concluded to go again tonight.

Geo. Richard and Henry Daugherty are out hunting near the Carson Sink. Henry introduced George as his oldest son all along the route.

L. Levy, of Denver, is in Carson. He will be married to the oldest daughter of A. Bergman next Sunday, and great preparations are being made for the event.

Yesterday stocks took another tumble. If the grand army of suckers who deal in stocks would take a tumble to themselves, the insiders would cease to grow fat off the earnings of the poor deluded fools.

Mrs. George T. Mills and Miss Olive Bray, of Carson, have received gold medals for their handwork exhibited at the World's Fair, the former for her exquisite needlework and the latter for hand-painting on China.—Tribune.

Chas. K. Harris, the author of "After the Ball," has cleared a fortune of $100,000 on the sale of that song, and will wed a Chicago lady to-night. Think of it, ye sweet singers, a Chicago girl and fortune for a mere song.—Encinal.

The Union Iron Works of San Francisco seem to be exceedingly fortunate in their shipbuilding. Up to the time when the business of creating a navy began they were unknown as shipbuilders. The Cramps have had a national reputation—an international one for that matter—many years, but the crack ship of the navy, when all were reviewed in the East, was declared to be the "San Francisco," turned out by the Union Iron Works. Now the dispatches tell us that the new "Olympia" is a very banner ship, and when we think how broad a cruiser has to be built in order to maintain its mighty armament, and that still this new one, in a heavy sea with a strong wind, 21.26 knots, and maintained a speed of 21 knots for more than three hours, the fact seems to establish that, in shipbuilding, as in everything else, what the Pacific Coast tries to do she does well.

Justice Court.

The money which Dan Couillard paid to J. Connelly for the purchase of the Arcade was attached by Chevallier & Co., liquor merchants of San Francisco, for a bill due them by W. Moore.

Justice Hawthorne commanded Connelly to bring the money into Court, and upon refusing Connelly was jailed. He finally gave the money up and was released. The Court decided that the money belonged to Moore and was subject to attachment.

Prof. L. Zimmer will furnish music for balls, parties, private and public entertainments, and give instructions on ten instruments; violin and mandolin a specialty. Apply at Ormsby House.

A YOUNG FINANCIER.

How Blaine Gray Handles Business.

When O. H. Gray and wife went to Chicago, he gave his son Blaine all the money, with instructions to transact all business and pay all bills contracted by the party. This was done to teach the boy the use of money and instill some idea of business into his young brain. That he needed no particular instruction is shown by what transpired on a dining car.

They went into the car for breakfast, and the waiter was instructed to give "three-on-one" check to the boy who would settle the bill.

Blaine is a healthy little rascal with an abnormal appetite, and weighs 120 pounds. When the meal was finished the waiter handed him a ticket indicating that $3 was due for the breakfast. Blaine walked up to him with a well-defined protest ready and said:

"Say, look here, waiter, this don't go."

"Why don't it? What's the matter with it?"

"Well there's a whole lot the matter with it; it ain't accordin' to the bill of fare. Say, let me give you a pointer that you needn't think you can bulldoze me because I'm from Nevada."

"Your bill of fare says children under twelve half price, and I'm only eleven. Here's two dollars and a half, and if you think you're goin' to get any more you're fooled, that's all."

The waiter took the money with a grin, and the young financier sauntered into the next car, remarking to his father:

"Say, pa, don't I get a divy on that half dollar?"

Short Stories.

Short Stories is one of the first magazines in the field with a Christmas number, and a very attractive one it is both as to reading matter and illustrations. There are humorous stories by H. C. Bunner, G. B. Burgin and James Payn; stories by well-known French writers such as Dumas and Daudet; while Clark Russell, George Fleming and other celebrities are fittingly represented. One noteworthy feature of this number is an interesting and pathetic study of a Japanese family, called "Sakakura San," by Mrs. M. Scott, who, we understand, was long a resident in the Satsuma valley. Another is the prize story by Mary C. Stockbridge—an entirely unconventional Christmas story in which the author with a few clever touches has presented a charming picture of an old Southern family.

We are promised that the January or Holiday number of Short Stories will be at least equal to the Christmas number. Numerous prizes are offered in the Christmas number of Short Stories, and of sufficient value to attract the attention of writers of repute.

Lepers on a Strike.

New Orleans, La., November 15.—There has been a strike among the sick in the leper hospital here, and quite an excitement was created by the appearance of one of the lepers at the newspaper offices to complain of the treatment of himself and other unfortunate wretches.

The leper who has been acting as cook for them is sick and unable to do his work and the others had to shift for themselves. They complain that they have not had enough to eat and that their medicines are adulterated. An appeal was made to the Mayor without effect, and the lepers announce their intention of waiting on the Governor and asking that their condition be bettered.
